Free demonstration downloads of all the products are available on the Alter Ego Software website. Updates are also provided free by download from the website.

History

Alter Ego Software, Inc. began producing Roleplaying Game character management software in 1994. The software is configured as a general-purpose application with game system templates to provide the unique features of any game system. Under an exclusive license with Hero Games, we developed Creation Workshop in 1997. This supported game system templates for GURPS[®], Hero System[™], Call of Cthulhu, Ars Magica, Legend of the Five Rings[™] and Sengoku[™]. In 2001 Steve Jackson Games introduced our GURPS Character Builder[™] under an exclusive license. Metacreator is compatible with the Creation Workshop and GURPS Character Builder templates.

Purchasing Information

Metacreator enjoys world-wide sales through several channels. Alter Ego Software maintains an on-line store at its website, www.alteregosoftware.com, offering both downloads and CD-ROM distribution.
