

Milk Cow Blues

A

Well I woke up this morning, and I looked out door,

A7

I could tell my milk cow, I could tell by the way she lore,

D7

A

If you see my milk cow, woo drive her on home,

E7

A

I ain't had no milk and butter, woo since my cow been gone.

Well, you got to treat me right, day by day,
get out your little prayer book, get down on your knees and pray,
'cause your gonna need, your gonna need my help someday,
yeah, your going to be sorry, you treated me this way.

break

Well good evenin', don't that sun look good goin' down,
Well good evenin', don't that sun look good goin' down,
don't your home look lonesome, when your lover ain't around?

stop time:

A

Now, I tried everything baby, to get along with you,

A

A

And now I'm gonna tell you what I'm gonna do,

A

I'm gonna stop tryin', I'm gonna leave you alone,

A

A7

If you don't think I'm leaving, you can count the days I'm gone.

full time:

D7

A

Your gonna need, you gonna need my help some-day,

E7

A

yeah, your going to be sorry, you treated me this way.
